1. Did they get tired of living this way?
2. What did God send this time to them?
3. What had God done for Israel in reference to Egypt?
4. What did He do with those that oppressed them?
5. According to verse 10, what was God to them?
6. Who should they not fear?
7. Did they obey Him?

This was the reason they were in bondage. It appears that they were tired of the bondage but not willing to turn to God.

Apply-

Many times we are tired of our situation and tired of being miserable but not willing to give in to God. We just want freedom from bondage without submission to Him. Little do we understand that the very thing we are looking for and more is found by submitting to Him. Have you submitted to the Lord?

Before you buy something at the store, don't you like to know someone who has one and really recommends it? Why then don't we do the same thing spiritually and take other's advice who have tried it and highly recommend it?

Ask some people who have and are submitted to the Lord what they think of it.

You'll not find one person who says they regret surrendering to the Lord.

It was Mid-Eastern hospitality to offer your guest food, but this was quite a spread. Who was Gideon focused on? Did the angel draw attention to himself or God?

This is key in the way people respond today to angels. Your attention should always be toward God.

How many times when we do something right, do we then concentrate on ourselves and not God? He should be getting the glory and attention, not us.

3. Where does he want the dew to be?
4. What will this tell him?
5. What is the last phrase of verse 37?

6. Did it happen like he asked?
7. How much water was there?
8. What did Gideon not want against himself?
9. Where does he want the dew now?
10. Did God do it?

We never need to prove God. His track record is pretty amazing. Yet we see here that God is gracious to give one of His servants the extra assurance he needed. Do you take God at His word?

9. How many men has Gideon lost?
10. How does the Bible describe the men?
11. Of what group does Gideon ask assistance?
12. For what did he ask?

Apply-

Gideon could have said to Ephraim, "Do you know who I am? Get in line and be quiet!" That would have stirred up the nest. Instead, he gave a complimentary answer that was true.

Are your answers soft (kind)?

When is the last time you gave a harsh answer?

Did it resolve the conflict or stir up anger?

Can you find a verse in Proverbs that deals with this subject?

How is your speech?

4. Had Israel done wrong to them?
5. What wrong had he done to Israel?
6. Who is the Judge?
7. Who would settle this dispute?
8. Did the children of Ammon listen?

Apply-

Jephthah had things in proper perspective. He put God in His proper place as Sovereign and trusted Him for the outcome.

Will you let God be your Judge now or will you just wait till the Judgment seat for Him to judge your life? Then it will be too late.

What actions over the last few days would the Judge be pleased with?

What actions would He not be pleased with?

Apply-

When we are filled with God's Spirit to accomplish God's will, God will get the victory.

Are you filled with the Spirit of God?

How can you tell?

Are you doing God's work?

What is it?

From your above answers you should be able to tell why or why you are not seeing victory.

7. What was the daughter's response?
8. Why did she say this?
  - Apparently some where between verses 35-37 he explained the vow to her.

Apply-

Jephthah understood the seriousness of a commitment to God. All of us have made commitments, but do you honor them no matter what?

This next passage of Scripture is perhaps the most difficult to discern in the Bible. We will attempt to do so.

DEFINITION: A vow is to promise voluntarily to give or do something; the primary idea is that of setting apart or consecrating.

1. What did his daughter want to do?
2. How long did she want to do this?
3. Did he give permission?
4. What did he do to her?
5. What did she never know?
6. What was a custom in Israel?
7. Who mourned her?
8. For how long did they mourn?

Find the two primary opinions of this passage and explain them. Circle the opinion you agree with.

9. Define withe (in this context) –
10. Who actually bound him?
11. Who was in the chamber with them?
12. When He broke them they were as what?

Apply-

Samson is blinded by his sensuality (sin). The problem is that people who are blinded don't know it. Could you be blinded and not know it?

God can reveal it to you if you really want to know. Ask Him to reveal any sin that you are blinded to and write it in the space below.

It's important to note that the Philistines have probably not revealed themselves at all in this process. However, he keeps going back. Why? Is it destructive?

We overlook the obvious signs of danger when we are blinded by our passion.

We do the same thing with Satan. We see how he treats others, yet we think we must be the exception.

Apply-

Dan never fully conquered the land God gave them so they're going to find green pastures and easier territory.

How do you typically look for the easy way out?

The Bible says the way of the transgressor is hard and Christ's yoke is easy.

God's way really is the easiest but even it takes diligence.

12. We finally learned the man's name who was priest, what was it?
13. How long was he (& his family) the priest?

Apply-

People who don't live by the Bible make up their own rules. Think about it. You steal someone's god & their priest so you can be blessed - this makes no sense. How do you make up your own rules at times? Give some examples below. We don't make sense either.

This is probably one of the most unpleasant chapters in the entire Bible. However, we know that God included it in the Bible for a reason (2 Timothy 3:16). As you work through the chapter this week, keep in mind that God has lessons for you to learn from it.

5. What did they do there?
6. Why were they weeping?
7. When did they get up the next day?
8. Why did they get up early?
9. What two types of offerings did they make?

They stood against wrong and defended right but it broke their hearts. They didn't enjoy it.

5. Was there any left of Benjamin?

6. What did they not have?

1. Who had not come up to battle with them? (Remember verse 5)
2. What does it mean for them to be numbered?
(You may need to research or call your pastor or mentor for help with this.)
3. How many men of Jabesh-Gilead were there?
4. How many men did they send?
5. What was the character of these men during battle?
6. What were they to do?
7. Who specifically were they to kill?

THINK: The sin that happened back in chapter 19 is affecting another group of people.

Apply-

Apparently the people of Jabesh-Gilead refused to come help in the battle. We don't know all the circumstances. Do you turn a deaf ear to sin or do you act when you can?

Do you ignore others' sin when you should lovingly confront it?

When was the last time you confronted a friend about an area he/she needed to change in their life? (Give some details. Do not give the name of the person.)

Of course we need to have our own lives right with God first. Do you have unresolved sin in your heart now                      Take care of this now.

Examine –

1. What did they find among the inhabitants?
2. How did they describe a virgin?
FACT: This is important for the Bible deniers who say God’s Word uses “virgin” for a young woman, so therefore Mary (Jesus’ mother), was just a young woman, not a virgin.
3. Where did they bring the girls?
4. Where was Benjamin hiding?
5. What did the congregation send to them?
6. How did they speak?
7. What did they give to Benjamin?
8. Was this enough for all to have a wife? (20:47)
9. Again, the Bible emphasizes the people _____ for Benjamin.

Apply-

Girls, put yourselves in the place of these who didn’t choose to sin in chapter 19, who had no choice in the decision not to go to battle and now have all their family killed and be forced to marry men they may never have seen before.
