Weekly memory verse – Micah 6:8

Time spent in prayer: _____

Read – Micah 1:1-4

Examine –

1. Who writes this book?
2. Where did he get the information?
3. From what city was he?
4. What three kings did he minister under?
5. To what two cities particularly does he point?
6. Even though he is talking about the above two cities, to whom does he want to listen?

7. Who will be witness against them?
8. What is God preparing to do?
9. Where will He tread?
10. What will the mountains be before Him?
11. How does he describe the valleys?
12. What natural disasters do you think he is describing?

Apply-

God is coming in the fullness of His fury. Yet as we will learn these people do not repent. What will God have to do to you before you repent?

How are you living life as if God will come to judge you?

Read – Micah 1:5-9

Examine – Go back and review yesterday’s passage!

1. Why is God doing all this? (2 things)
2. List the four questions the writer asks to answer the question!

NOTE: Apparently Samaria’s idol worship influenced everyone, including Jerusalem.

3. Because of this, what was God going to do to Samaria?
FACT: Samaria was the capital of the Northern Kingdom!
4. What would happen to the very stones of the city?
5. What does “pour down the stones” mean?
6. What would God “discover”?
7. What would happen to the idols?
8. What would happen to the “hires”?
9. What does the word hire mean? (the rest of the verse can help you)
10. What two sounds will he make?

NOTE: This is a difficult verse to interpret. The word “stripped” means to be barefooted, and the word “naked” can refer to total nakedness, but when men did so in connection to prophesying, it probably refers to the upper garment. The two animals mentioned here are a sea dragon and either an ostrich or an owl, both of which make an awful sound when they lose a young one or are dying.

11. What is incurable?
12. What city has influenced Judah and even Jerusalem?

Apply-

What are your “idols”?

Will God have to “grind them to powder”?

Read – Micah 1:10-16

Examine – Micah uses the names of the towns and their meanings to pronounce judgment on the people.

1. Match the meaning of the city to the judgment he uses.

	Gath	A. March or out town
	Aphrah	B. Horse town
	Saphri	C. Neighbor town
	Zaanah	D. Betrothed town
	Bethezel	E. Bitter town
	Maroth	F. False town
	Jerusalem	G. Tell town
	Lachish	H. Inheritance or possessions town
	Moreseth-gath	I. Dust town
	Achzib	J. Testimony or refuge town
	Mareshah	K. Beauty or fair town
	Adullam	L. Peace town

2. Baldness was always a sign of mourning. For what are they mourning?

3. Where are they?

Apply-

If you ran a town, what would it be named if it took on your characteristics?

Do you like the name?

If you don't like it, what would you like for it to be and why?

1. Where do these people think up their evil plots?
2. When do they practice it?
3. Why do they?
4. Look up the following verses and write what the Lord says about devising mischief:
  - Pro. 4:16 -
  - Pro. 6:14 -
  - Pro. 10:23
5. They are after what three things?
6. How do they get them?
7. God will design a punishment that will not allow them to do what?
8. How shall they not walk around any more?

Apply-

What do you think about as you go to bed?

Do you have a problem with coveting others' possessions?

Ask God to forgive you and claim Philippians 4:8.

Read – Micah 2:4-9

Examine –

1. For this family who took advantage of others, others would do what to them?
2. All that they had taken through deceit would now be what?
3. Remember these people had received land through deception in high places. What would they no longer have in Israel?
FACT: The congregation of the LORD is always referring to the whole nation.
4. What do they want the true prophets to do?
5. What were some people afraid the people would do? (end of verse 6)
6. From what house were they?
FACT: These people were saying because we are God's people He would not do this to us. The Pharisees had the same attitude (Matthew 3:9; John 8:39-40)
7. Answer both of Micah's questions with obvious answers: (1.) Is God limited so that He cannot react? (2.) Are these His doings?
8. Who will accept Micah's words without any argument?
9. Who is rising up as an enemy?
10. "Averse from war" means unprepared or not in fight mode. When do these covetous people make their move?
11. What were they doing to the women and children?

Apply-

The false prophets were pronouncing certain judgment on the people by telling them not to worry about judgment and continue their lifestyles. They wanted Micah to shut up so they could continue their wicked ways. What is your response when someone preaches or tells truth that would require a change of course in your life?

Do you catch yourself trying to avoid preaching and spiritual things?

Do you think that because you're a Christian, God won't punish you?

You are no better off than Israel was and God did judge them!!

3. This land will also do what to them?
4. What kind of prophet is Micah talking about in verse 11?
5. What is the prophet telling the people?
6. People love a prophet who tells them what they want to hear?
FACT: This ends the first section in Micah, so he closes it with a ray of hope!
7. What will God eventually do?
8. To what does God compare them?
9. Great noise will prove what?
10. Who is the breaker? (you must think prophetically)
11. Who will pass before them?
12. Who is their King?

Apply-

Is He your King?

How are you allowing Him to lead you where He wants for you to go?

NOTE: These false prophets wanted their mouths fed, and if you did not do that adequately then they declared war on you whatever way they could.

3. What will come on them?

This “heap” that God has “plowed” will one day be restored. This is reason to rejoice, but God would not have to restore if the judgment did not fall. You can prevent His judgment by judging yourself. (1 Cor. 11:31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.)

1. What will happen to the walls?
2. What will be far removed?
3. From what five places will people come to Israel in that day? Tell what each of these may represent and your reason for thinking that.

4. How is the land when all this happens?
5. Why is it this way?

Apply-

God will one day restore, but not until the land is worthless and thousands of years have passed. There have been many wasted years!

Is this your attitude towards God that you will come to Him after living the life you want?

You will bring Him a desolate life and many wasted opportunities.
