

PSALM 119

Although this is a chapter in the Bible, it is longer than some books! The overwhelming theme of this chapter is ... The Bible. It is mentioned in some form in nearly every verse.

The Bible may be referred to as:

- Law
- Testimonies
- Precepts
- Statues
- Commandments
- Righteous judgments
- Way
- Word

I believe this study will delight your heart. We will do a lot of cross-referencing out of these passages. We have said often that the Bible is our only authority. I trust by the end you will love it more than you ever have. If you grasp this chapter's significance, I believe you will be a different person long-term.

This Bible study is free for personal use or for use in a family, church, school, counseling, or discipleship setting. Study guide may not be sold.

PSALM 119:1-8

Psalm 119:2

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies and that seek him with the whole heart.

THE THINGS I WANT TO ACCOMPLISH THIS WEEK!!!

I COR. 10:31

Date: _____

Time of day: _____

Weekly memory verse – Psalm 119:2

Time spent in prayer _____

Read – Psalm 119:1 and Psalm 1:1-3

Examine –

1. Who is blessed?
2. How do they walk?

Look at Psalm 1:1-3 and answer these questions:

3. What 3 things do the Godly not do?
4. In what does he delight?
5. What does he do with it?
6. How often?
7. What are the results of this action?
8. What, in your opinion, is meditation?
9. What are the results of this Godly living?
10. How do you think David knew this?

FACT: David had to have observed this whole process in someone or many people.

Apply-

Would people say you are undefiled based on their observation of you?

Others are watching!

Do you meditate?

Prayer: _____

Praise: _____

Time of day: _____

Weekly memory verse – Psalm 119:2

Time spent in prayer _____

Read – Psalm 119:2

Examine –

1. What do the blessed keep?
THINK: You can't "keep" something you don't know!
2. What do they do next?
3. How do they do that?

Read Psalm 63:1-9

4. When does David seek God?
5. Do you thirst for God as this passage describes?
6. What did he want to see?
FACT: Notice David didn't ask for things or answers. He just wanted a look at God.
7. What would he do as a result?
Seek & Thirst → → See God → → Praise God
8. Look at verse 6. What word do we see here again?
9. In verse 8, how does he follow God?

Apply-

Do you want to know God?

If you want to know God, you must have this kind of thirst.

Read Jeremiah 29:13 – This is a promise!

What can you do today to start this process?

Weekly memory verse – Psalm 119:2

Time spent in prayer _____

Read – Psalm 119:3

Examine –

1. What do these people not do?
2. Where do they walk?
3. Do you think this is connected?
HINT: We will learn about this next week.
4. Is it possible to never sin?
5. Can we choose right each time we're given the choice?
6. Should we give up trying?

Read Romans 7:14-25

7. What is he describing in this passage?
8. What dwells in our flesh?
9. What goes on in the mind (vs. 23)
10. What is his conclusion about himself?
11. Verse 25 answers the question in verse 24. Look at I Corinthians 15:57. Who has the victory?
12. How can we not sin?

Apply-

Jesus has given the victory. The question is, have you claimed it?

Walking in God's ways and doing no iniquity are inseparable. If you are in sin, you are not walking with God. If you are not sinning, you are walking with God. Trust in Him. Claim the victory today!

Weekly memory verse – Psalm 119:2

Time spent in prayer _____

Read – Psalm 119:4

Examine –

1. What does David realize in verse 4?
2. How are we to do this?
3. Can you list at least 10 things God has commanded us to do? List a reference beside command.

4. Define PRECEPTS –

Read Psalm 103:8-18

5. How does God deal with our sins?
6. How far does He remove our sins?
7. What does God remember about us?
8. How great is God's mercy?
9. To whom, according to verse 18, does he apply this mercy?

Apply -

It appears that if we genuinely try to do right, God's mercy is prominent. Do you realize God has commanded us to keep his precepts? How are you trying to do this?

Examine –

1. What is David's desire now?
2. Looking back at verses 1-3, do you think David included himself in this group of people?
3. Does he have a different attitude now?
4. What is one of the results of him keeping God's commandments?
THINK: Are you ashamed of sin?

Read John 3:19

5. What is the light in this passage? (John 9:5)
6. When we sin, of whom do we not want to think?
7. For how many commandments did he have respect?
8. Whose commandments are they?

Apply -

Can you say, with David, all of verse 5?

You must know "the way" before you can go "the way."

Do you have that desire?

Weekly memory verse – Psalm 119:2

Time spent in prayer _____

Read – Psalm 119:7-8

Examine –

1. What will David do?
2. What will be his heart condition?
3. What is he to learn?
4. How is he to learn?

Look up the following verses and see if you can see a reoccurring theme?

Psalm 90:12 - _____

Psalm 32:8 - _____

5. What is David now resolved to do?
6. What is he afraid of in the last part of verse 8?
7. Based on our study this week, is that possible?
8. Notice the difference in pronouns in the first 3 verses of the chapter and the last 3 verses. What is it?

Apply:

The “Will” in verse 8 leaves no room for floundering but only solid resolve. Stop right now and search your heart (Psalm 139:23-24). Is this your resolve?

If it is, write your resolve here and spend time with God asking Him to help you!

I COR. 10:31

Date: _____

Time: _____

Weekly memory verse – Psalm 119:63

Time spent in prayer _____

Read – Psalm 119:57-58

Examine –

1. Define PORTION –
2. Who is his portion?
3. Read Lamentations 3:24. Who was his portion?
4. What did this cause him to do?
5. What did the writer in Psalms say?
6. Define INTREAT –
7. For what was he asking?
8. How did he do this asking?
9. How does he want to be treated?
10. What told him God could be that way?

Apply-

The author begged God to have favor on him and to deal with him in mercy. Do you see God as One who you should humbly beg for mercy?
Why?

He is! Maybe we should change our attitude about Him.

Examine –

1. Why did God afflict the writer?
2. Is this consistent with God's Word? (See Hebrews 12:5-6)
3. God is _____!
4. God does _____!
FACT: The writer says this because he has experienced God's discipline. God is good when things are good or bad.
5. What does he ask for again?
6. Who is against him?
7. What have they done?
8. What is his response?
9. How much of his heart does he put into it?
10. Does he have any room left in his heart to worry about the accusers?

Apply -

Do you see God as good?

Will God have to "afflict" you to get you to obey Him?

Are there areas you've not given him?

What are they?

Give them to Him today!

Examine –

1. Who does he want ashamed?
2. How did they deal with him?
3. Did they have a reason to treat him this way?
4. Again what is his concentration?

THOUGHT: When we focus on problems, they get bigger and bigger. When we focus on God, HE gets bigger and bigger.

5. Who does he want around him now?
6. Why does he want someone who has known his testimonies?
7. What is to be sound?
8. It is not his actions but his _____. Anyone can act the part, but this is a heart issue.
9. In what is it to be sound?
10. Define SOUND –
11. Why (again) does he not want to be sound?

Apply-

Who do you want to hang around?

That probably tells you where you are spiritually.

Examine –

1. What was his soul doing?
2. For what?
3. What kind of salvation did he want?
4. In what was his hope grounded?

5. If Peter 1:19 tells us that this word is what?
6. What is failing him?
7. What does he want to know from God?

8. What is he like?
NOTE: Bottles were made of animal skins. The smoke and heat would cause the skins to shrivel up.
9. What has he not forgotten?

10. Would you say the author is pretty discouraged?

Apply -

Have you ever been discouraged?

Have you had a situation that you thought

God should respond a certain way and he didn't?

Remember Psalms 119:68! Thank God for the tough times!

2. What did he want God to do?
3. What did he want to know?
4. What type of people are the ones persecuting him?
5. What did they do?

NOTE: The word “pit” probably refers to temptations.

6. What was characteristic of the temptations?
7. According to I Cor. 10:13, can we handle it if God gives it to us?
8. What will God make for us?
9. According to James 1:2-3, what is God trying to produce in us?
THOUGHT: It appears to me that patience is what the writer is lacking.

Apply -

How about you. Do you have patience?

What does it take to get it? (Romans 5:3)

Are you willing?

7. What was his response?
8. Look back to week 3 to find the definition of quicken.
9. How does he want this done?
10. As God quickens him, what will he do?

OVERVIEW:

David (the writer) observes godly people, decides to be godly, and begins a walk towards that. As he did, he was confronted with what we would call peer pressure and persecution. He appears to be discouraged, but his hope is still in God.

Apply:

What does this tell you about your own decisions and how to respond to others?

Write a brief paragraph here in your own words.

THE THINGS I WANT TO ACCOMPLISH THIS WEEK!!!
I COR. 10:31

Date: _____

Time: _____

Weekly memory verse – Psalm 119:120

Time spent in prayer _____

Read – Psalm 119:105-106

Examine –

1. What is God’s Word? (2 things)
2. Look at verse 130 of this chapter. What does God’s Word do?
3. In “light” of this, Read Matthew 5:16. What should we let shine? THINK
4. What did he swear to do?
5. What will he do?

*Look at Ecclesiastes 5:4-5.

6. To whom is your vow?
7. What are you if you don’t pay it?
8. What would have been better?
9. When you say you will do something in a service, is that a vow?

If you’re not sure the answer is YES!

Apply-

In verse 106, he is going over his decision in verse 8. Many of you decided “I WILL” be godly. That was a vow. How are you doing?

How are you allowing God’s Word to be your light and guide?

Weekly memory verse – Psalm 119:120

Time spent in prayer _____

Read – Psalm 119: 107-109

Examine –

1. What state is he in now?

THOUGHT: It seems he is struggling but will not give up!

2. What does he ask God to do?

3. How?

4. Read Hebrews 4:12. Can the Word of God do what he asks?

5. Will it be painless?

6. What does he want him to accept?

7. What do you think this means?

8. What does he want to be taught?

NOTE: According to verse 109, we can make our own decisions. Your soul is in your hand. However, the author chose not to forget God's Word as he made these decisions.

Apply-

How about you?! Yes, you can make your own decisions, but do you heed God's Word?

Do you listen to God's counsel?

How have you or have you not?
