Background Information

The Book of Romans was written by the Apostle Paul to the believers at Rome sometime between 55-58 AD. It was probably written from Corinth. Its purpose is to show that man can not earn salvation no matter what he is or could be. It lays out God's plan of salvation for everyone. The key verse is Romans 6:23. The latter part of the book lays out the way a person who is saved should behave. The key verse in this section is Romans 12:1-2.

ROMANS ONE

Romans 6:1-2

What shall we say then?

Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

ROMANS TWO

Romans 6:3-4

Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death:
that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

Weekly memory verse - Romans 6:3-4

Read - Romans 2:1-2

Examine -

Romans two further develops the theme of chapter one, that all mankind lacks righteousness. In verses 1-16, we see that the "Moral" man lacks righteousness.

1. Who does the man that judges another condemn?
2. What things does the man who judges do?
3. What word does Matt 7:5 use to describe the man who is guilty of the same thing he judges another for?
4. Who judges according to truth?
5. What is truth? (John 17:17)
6. Is man's judgment reliable?
7. According to Matt. 7:2, with what shall we be judged?
8. According to Matt 7:5, what should we do before judging someone else?
9. Do we make ourselves righteous by condemning others?

Verse - Romans 6: 3-4

Read - Romans 2: 3-10

Examine -

1. Will we avoid the judgment of God by judging others?
2. What three things do the self-righteous hypocrites despise?
3. What does God's goodness lead people to do?
4. What kind of heart does the self-righteous hypocrite have?
5. What does this person store up for himself?
6. Compare verse 6 with I Cor. 3:11-15, II Cor. 5:10, and Rev. 20:11-15.
  - a. Who will God judge?
  - b. For what will each group be judged?
7. Verse 7 talks about people who continually, constantly, always do good. According to chapter 3:10-12, does anybody fit this description?
8. Who then can save themselves by doing good works?
9. What will God render to those who disobey the truth, but obey unrighteousness?

Apply -

None of us are exempt from God's Word; we are all unrighteous, deserving condemnation. Take a minute to thank God for making salvation possible through Jesus Christ! List one way this has changed your life!

2. Will people who have never had access to God's Word avoid God's judgment?
3. According to what standard will God judge those who have access to his Word?
4. Compare verse 13 with James 1:22. What are we supposed to do with God's Word?
5. What has God put inside of every person, by which we have a sense of right and wrong?
6. What will God judge according to vs. 16?
7. Compare vs. 16 with II Cor. 5:10. By whom will God judge us?

In verses 17-29, we see that the "legalistic" Jew lacks righteousness.

1. In what does the Jew rest?
2. In what is the Jew instructed?
3. According to Romans 3:28 and Galatians 2:16, was the law given as a means of salvation?
4. What is the purpose of the law according to Galatians 3:24?
5. What four words in verse 19 and 20 describe how the Jew sees himself?
6. In Matthew 23:16, what did Jesus call the Pharisees (some of these legalistic Jews)?
7. What warning does James 3:1 give to those who teach others?

Examine -

1. How long does the Law have dominion over a man?
2. By what are we dead to the Law?
3. To whom should we be married? (vs. 4)
4. What should be the result of this marriage?
5. When we were in the flesh, we brought forth fruit unto what?
6. From what are we now delivered?
7. To what have we died?
8. How are we to serve God now?
9. Does this mean that the Old Testament has no relevance to us?
(Read Romans 15:4 and for an example read I Corinthians 9:9,10)

Apply - The principles set forth in the Old Testament are still relevant to us, but God is not interested in the performance of religious ceremony. He is interested in the fruit produced in a life yielded to His Holy Spirit. How is the fruit of the Holy Spirit evident in your life?

5. What good thing dwells in Paul's flesh?
6. What important principle does Philippians 3:3 give us concerning our flesh?
7. Paul's will is to do good, but he finds that he has trouble doing what?
8. What dwells in Paul that causes him to do what he doesn't want to do?

Apply -

God does not take away our sin nature when we get saved. This will happen when we go home to Heaven. Until then, we must remember that we are capable of committing any sin. Don't allow yourself to walk into temptation thinking that you are "strong enough" because you're not (and neither was Paul).

3. Read John 3:18: When is the person who does not believe in Jesus condemned?
4. How does Paul characterize those who are in Christ (1b)?
5. What is the Holy Spirit called in verse 2?
6. From what has Paul been made free?
7. Why could the Law not make us free from the law of sin and death?
8. What did Christ do to sin?
9. In whom is the righteousness of the law fulfilled?

Apply –

Those who do not believe in Jesus Christ do not have to wait until the judgment day to be condemned by God-they are already condemned. Those who do believe in Jesus Christ are already forgiven. They are not condemned by God because Jesus in the flesh condemned sin! Are you 100% sure you have trusted Jesus as your personal Savior and are no longer under condemnation? 2. What things do these people mind?
3. What category of people are described as "they that are after the Spirit"?
4. What kind of things do these people mind?
5. What is the result of being carnal-minded?
6. What is the result of being Spiritually-minded?
7. Is it possible for a carnal-minded person to be in subjection to God's law?
8. Is it possible for this kind of person to please God?
9. According to Hebrews 11:6, what is necessary to please God?
10. Who indwells those who are in the Spirit (believers)?
11. Is it possible to be a believer and not have the Holy Spirit?
12. According to verse 10, who else indwells believers?
13. What is wrong with our bodies because of sin?
14. Define QUICKEN -
15. What will God do one day with our dead bodies?
16. According to verses 12 and 13, how are believers not to live?

Apply –

True believers in Christ have the Holy Spirit living in them. Their lives should be characterized by interest in spiritual things and desire to please God. What are your interests?

Are you living to please yourself or God?

Questions to evaluate yourself: 1. Would you rather go to a Bible study or your favorite hobby?

2. When you have 10 minutes, do you choose time in prayer or time on the phone?

3. Compare vs. 20 with Genesis 3:17. What happened to the earth because of Adam's sin?
4. From what will the creation one day be delivered?
5. Read Isaiah 11: 6-9. What will the creation be like one day?
6. What does the creation do now? (vs. 22)
7. Who else groans, besides the creation?
8. For what are we waiting?
9. Read I Corinthians 15:51-53. What will happen to our bodies one day?

Apply -

Yesterday we saw that we are called to partake of Christ's sufferings.

Suffering is unpleasant and often discouraging, but we must always remember that the worst time of suffering is nothing in comparison to how wonderful Heaven will be. List some ways in which you are suffering.

Now, list the same number of things that are wonderful about Heaven and compare the lists.

Weekly Memory Verse - Romans 6: 12

Read - Romans 8: 26-27

Examine -

1. Who helps our infirmities?
2. What is infirmity?
3. What don't we know how to do?
4. What does the Holy Spirit do for us?
5. With what does he intercede for us?
6. What does Jesus call the Holy Spirit in John 14:16?
7. What part of us does God search?
8. According to what does the Holy Spirit intercede for us?

Apply -

We have already seen that we can be encouraged when we are suffering because of how puny our problems are compared to how great it is in glory. Another reason to be encouraged is because believers also have the Holy Spirit to comfort them and pray for them. What do the following verses tell us about how our relationship with the Holy Spirit should be?

1. What things work together for good to them that love God?
2. To what did God predestinate us?
3. What did God also do to those whom he predestinated and called?
4. If God is for us, who can be against us?
5. Whom did God deliver up for us?
6. What other things will God give us with him?
7. Can anyone legitimately lay a charge against God's elect?
8. Who is it that justifies?
9. Verse 34 tells us that Christ died and rose again. Where is he now, and what is he doing?
10. Verse 35 lists 7 things that we fear. What does verse 37 say that we are in these things?
11. Is there anything at all that can separate us from the love of God?

Apply -

We have now seen four thoughts to encourage us in times of sufferings:

1. The glory that awaits us.
2. The ministry of the indwelling Holy Spirit.
3. God uses suffering to conform us to the image of his Son.
4. No suffering can separate us from God's love.

1. To whom is this chapter addressed?
2. What nationality specifically is incorporated in this group addressed? (Jews / Gentiles)
3. What is Paul's desire and prayer?
4. About what did Paul commend Israel?
5. About what did Paul condemn Israel?
6. Was Paul saying that zeal is something to be avoided?
7. List examples of people having zeal but not according to knowledge. (Example: Other religions)
8. Of what was Israel ignorant?
9. What was wrong with their attempt to be saved?
10. Who is the fulfillment (end) of the law of righteousness?
11. To whom is this fulfillment applied?

Apply -

Do you have a desire to see people saved, and do you pray to that end? Make a list of people who you know, or think, are not saved and begin to pray for them. Pray that they will turn from their self-righteous way and turn to the way of grace through faith.

2. How is righteousness attained by the Law?
3. Can anyone live by the Law without offense?
4. Therefore, can anyone attain righteousness through the Law?
5. Since righteousness is not of the law, how is it attained?

6. The next few verses are a quotation from Deut. 30: 12-14. The basic concept is that no one is responsible from the incarnation, death, and resurrection of Christ but God Himself. Why is this important?

7. What relevance does the former statement have to man's attainment of righteousness?

8. From where does the law of righteousness come?
9. What are men to preach?

6. Since, according to vs. 18, they have "heard", what is left to receive salvation?

7. Whose responsibility is it for them to believe (exercise faith)?
8. Study Psalm 19:4 contextually (read surrounding verses). How did the "sound" and "words" reach the ends of the earth?
9. How does that relate to Romans 1:20-21, and man's response to the light of creation?

10. How are the effects of past times of responding reflections upon the availability of the Gospel in modern countries?

Apply -

How valuable is the Bible to you?

This answer will define your spiritual maturity.

Since Rom.1:17 says the just shall live by faith, and faith ultimately comes by understanding the Word of God, then our lives are to be consumed by this Book. Set aside some entertainment time to read the Scriptures. If you're not willing to do so, you are giving an indication of how little appreciation you have for so great a salvation.

3. According to Deuteronomy 32:39, why did God do all this?
4. Read Isaiah 65:1. To whom is Isaiah speaking? (note: it cannot be the same as vs. 21)
5. About whom is he speaking?
6. What does this verse reveal about God's compassion?
7. Read Isaiah 65:2 and following. Note God's compassion once again. Also note the stubbornness and wickedness of people who have experienced it. What can we learn about ourselves in looking at this passage?
8. What led Israel to this point?

Apply -

Notice the state of Israel. Studying these passages in depth reveals that idolatry led Israel to this point. Though you may not worship golden calves and such, you may have removed God from being the Master of your life - thus making you an idolater. Spend some time with God in prayer and analyze your heart (Psalm 139:28-29) and list some areas where you have replaced God with someone or something else. Examine -

1. How did we as Gentiles obtain mercy?
2. How many people are in unbelief?
3. Why?

4. How is God's wisdom and knowledge described?

5. What is unsearchable?
6. What is past finding out?
7. Who can know God's mind or give him counsel?
8. What have we given God that we deserve anything from Him?

9. What are the three words that are before Him in verse 36?
10. What does this tell us about our world?

11. What should our response be to this?

Apply -

If we were intelligent beyond our years, we could not figure God out. He does not think like us or act like us. If we could figure God out, what would that tell you about Him?

What kind of security does it give you knowing that God is unfathomable?

Examine -

1. Define BESEECH -
2. To whom does Paul address this?
3. By what is he asking you to do this?
4. What is he asking you to do?
5. What three things describe this body when we give it?
6. Define REASONABLE –
7. Define SERVICE - (think about the context)
8. What are we to be?
9. What are we not to be?
10. How does this happen?
11. What will you prove if you do these things?
12. How is this described in the later part of the verse?

Apply -

We can only find God's will when we do these things! That will is good, perfect, and acceptable to us. Do you want to find God's will?

Then do what you know to do!

Look at Psalms 119: 9-11 and begin to cleanse your mind!

8. If you don't eat, how should you respond to those who do?
9. Should we judge?
10. Who is able to make us stand?
11. Who is our Master?

Apply -

We are beginning to lay the groundwork for a chapter on how we are to act when we need to make decisions about things that are not clearly defined in Scripture. When others form different views or standards, how should we view that or react?

4. What will you abound with and how?
5. Give three phrases Paul uses to describe these people in verse 14?
6. What particular grace did God give to Paul?
7. What ministry did Paul have?
8. What does Paul glory in then?

Apply -

People were challenging whether the Gentiles should be preached to, but Paul defends that right and counts it a privilege to be the Apostle to the Gentiles. Do you have joy and peace?

Do you tell your face?

Determine today to demonstrate outwardly the Joy that is inward!

1. What does Paul not dare speak?
2. It appears that someone wants him to speak something other than what God told him. The last part of the verse tells us that they wanted to make the Gentiles _____.
3. What did Paul do by the Holy Spirit?
4. Where did he preach?
5. What did he preach?
6. Where did Paul concentrate his preaching efforts?
7. Why was this true?
8. Who is verse 21 talking about:
He - _____
They - _____
9. Why was Paul hindered from them?
10. Did he want to see the Christians at Rome?

Apply -

People wanted Paul to preach that the Gentiles needed the Law or portions of it to be saved. He did not, but much pressure was on him. How do you respond when pressure is applied to you?

Do you do right or wrong?

ROMANS SIXTEEN

Romans 6: 22-23

But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.
For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE THINGS I WANT TO ACCOMPLISH THIS WEEK!!!

Weekly memory verse - Romans 6: 22-23

Read - Romans 16:1-5

Examine -

1. Who does Paul commend to the church at Rome?
2. Where did she serve?
Find where this is located on a map.
3. How were they to receive her?
4. What were they to do for her?
5. Why should they do this?
6. Define SUCCOR –
7. Who else were they to greet?
8. What three important facts do we find out about these two people?
  - 1.
  - 2.
  - 3.
9. Who was Epanetus?
10. What do you think this means?

Apply -

Three of the four people in this passage were a tremendous help to Paul in the ministry. What way have you directly helped someone in the ministry recently? Write it below.

If you haven't helped, write out a plan of what you can do!

If we are not careful, we will read through this passage and miss a blessing. Beside each name, write something we know about this individual and a character quality they show.

Name	Something we know	Character quality
Mary
Andronicus
Junia
Amplias
Urbane
Stachys
Apelles
Aristobulus

Apply -

Weekly Memory Verse - Romans 6: 22-23

Read - Romans 16: 11-15

Examine -

1. From what famous household did Herodion possibly come?
2. They were to greet those of _____ household. What qualification did he put on this greeting?
3. These next three people are ladies. What did he say about them?
4. What does this tell you about ladies in God's service?
5. Rufus and who were to be saluted?
6. What was significant about this lady?
7. Does this mean that she was literally his mother or someone who showed motherly care for Paul?
8. The next five men could have been the leaders of a small house church in Rome. The same is true of the next group! From this list of people, what can we learn about Paul?

Apply -

Paul was a people person. He had many friends and people he impacted. If you were to write a letter to those people that you had influenced and knew, what would you say to them? Write some brief thoughts here!

Examine -

1. How should they salute one another?
2. What does this mean?
3. How do we salute people today?
4. What two things should we do to those who cause divisions and offenses?

5. Who are these people serving?
6. How do they deceive people?

7. What is known of the Roman church?

8. What should they be wise toward?
9. What should they be simple toward?
10. What is God going to do to Satan?
11. What does Paul wish to be with them?

Apply -

Do you cause offenses and divisions?

Are you known for your obedience?

For what are you known?

If you need help with these questions, ask a close family member, mentor, or a leader in your church who knows you well.

Read - Romans 16: 21-24

Examine -

1. The greetings are coming from this end now. Of the four first mentioned, who is the most well-known.
Why?
2. Who was Tertius? (Be careful - you might get confused)
3. Look at III John. To whom is this book addressed?
4. What was Gaius to Paul in this letter?
5. Does this fit with what Gaius was doing in III John?
6. Who was Erastus?
7. What does this mean?
8. What is similar about verse 20b and verse 24?
9. What does it make you think verses 21-24 are in our language?

Apply -

It is obvious that Gaius was very hospitable. This is something many people have lost today. See if you can find a verse that tells us to be hospitable and write down some things you can do!
