

RUTH

Background Information

Although Ruth is a short book, it is power packed. The very fact that a book was titled after her speaks volumes, for Ruth was not a Jew. She is the only woman in the Bible called a virtuous woman. Boaz is a man of integrity as well.

Ask God to show you valuable lessons over the next three weeks. Enjoy!

RUTH 1:1 – 2:9

Ruth 1:16-17

And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee,
or to return from following after thee:
for whither thou goest, I will go;
and where thou lodgest, I will lodge:
thy people shall be my people,
and thy God my God:

Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried:
the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me.

Weekly memory verse – Ruth 1:16-17

Read – Ruth 1:1-5

Examine –

1. Who was ruling Israel in those days?
2. What was in the land?
3. Where does the man live?
4. What does the name of this city mean?

5. Where did he go?
6. Who went with him?
7. What were names of all the people in his family?

8. From what tribe were they?
9. Who died?
10. What did the sons do?
11. What were their names?
12. How long were they there?
13. What happened to her sons?

Apply-

Can you list at least 2 direct commands they violated?

What was the punishment?

What are you doing that is in direct contradiction to God?

Weekly memory verse – Ruth 1:16-17

Read – Ruth 1:6-10

Examine –

1. What did Naomi hear?
2. Who was she taking with her?
3. To where were they returning?
4. What advice did Naomi offer to them?

5. What kind of blessing did she pronounce on them?
THOUGHT: Naomi's mind was so cluttered by the world that she was calling on God to bless a heathen family in their heathen environment.
6. What was both parties' initial response in verse 9?

7. What did they say to her in verse 10?

Apply-

Do you have so much of the world in you that you are “blessing” heathen practices?

Like what?

What do you laugh at on T.V.?

What do you allow to enter your eye and ear gate?

God help us to be pure.

Read – Ruth 1:11-18

Examine –

1. Of what did Naomi say she had no more?
2. What was she too old to have?
3. If she could have sons, could they wait?
4. What grieved her?

Remember: Sin always affects others.

5. What did they do again?
6. Who left her?
7. To what had Orpah returned?
8. What did Ruth not want her to do anymore?
9. Where would she go?
10. Who would be her God?
11. What was the only thing to part them?
12. Did Ruth convince Naomi?

Apply-

How could Naomi tell someone to go back to a god that could not help?

How can we not tell people of a God who wants to help?

Are you telling others?

When is the last time that you told someone about Christ?

When is the last time that you even gave out a tract?

Examine –

1. To what city did they come?
2. How did the city react to their home coming?
3. What did she want them to call her?
4. Who had dealt with her?
5. How had he dealt with her?
6. How did she go out?
7. How did she come back?
THINK: Was this entirely true?
8. What two ways does she describe?
9. When did they get to Bethlehem?

Apply-

God does punish sin. This is a fact that no one can dispute. Be careful. It's amazing to me that Naomi overlooks Ruth when she says she came back empty.

Do you look at the negative all the time?

There is positive and negative in every situation. It just matters what you concentrate on.

Work at focusing on the positive today (and after that too.)

2. What family was he from?
3. What was his name?
4. What was his financial status?
5. What did Ruth want to do?

READ LEVITICUS 19:9-10

6. What was to be left for the poor?
7. What was Ruth? (poor or stranger)

BACK TO THE MAIN PASSAGE

8. What did she glean after?
9. What field did she “happen” to come?

Apply-

Ruth was willing to work to provide for them. God rewards diligence.

1. From where did Boaz come?
NOTE: This seems to indicate that they were away from Naomi's home. Therefore, Ruth had a walk ahead of her as well.
2. What is used in their greetings?
3. What did Boaz want to know?
4. Verse 7 describes her as a _____ worker.
5. Who does he talk to next?
6. What does he not want her to do?
7. What had he charged the young men?
8. What happens when she is thirsty?
NOTE: This was unusual because the women did the well-drawing and the men drank. He was honoring her very highly.

Apply-

Everyone seems to be impressed with Ruth. She has made quite an impression. Do you make a good impression on others?

What positive influence have you brought to your church?

Go back and read verses 4-9 to get the context

1. What was Ruth's response to Boaz's statement?
2. What did she say she had found in his eyes?
3. What did she say she was?
4. What had been shown to Boaz?
5. What 3 things did she leave?

6. What would God recompense?
7. Where had Ruth come to trust?
8. In Psalm 63:7, what does the author say he will do under God's wings?

Apply-

Where is your trust?

In money?

In things?

In popularity?

In friends?

In mom and dad?

Other: _____

1. What did she want to find with him?
2. Why?
3. What was she to do at mealtime?
4. Who did she sit beside?
NOTE: This was unusual because at no time did the women eat with the men, and Jews never ate with foreigners. Boaz was extending gracious treatment to her.
5. What did Boaz encourage his gleaners to do?
6. What did they purposely leave for her?
7. For how long did she glean?
8. What did she do after she gleaned?
9. How much did she get?
10. What was she gleaning?

Apply-

Ruth's diligence paid off. It always does. In every aspect she was treated better than she deserved. List at least 5 ways that you are treated better than you deserve.

1. Where did she go?
2. What else did she bring to Naomi?
INTERESTING: It appears to me that Ruth ate just enough not to be hungry and saved some for Naomi. She did not overeat and was unselfish.
3. Who did Naomi bless?
4. What was his name?
5. What did God not leave off?
6. According to Naomi, Boaz was a _____.
7. What else did Boaz tell her?

8. Did Naomi like this idea?
9. To whom did she keep close?
10. What two resources were harvested?

Apply-

We can see God's sovereign hand in this situation. However, we also see man's choice, because Ruth had to choose to go to work. You cannot nor should you worry about God's part, but what are you going to do about your part?

List some of "your part" choices that you should make everyday?

5. Where did he do this?
6. What 3 things was Ruth to do?
7. What was she not to do?
8. What was she to do after he lied down? (3 things)
9. What would Boaz do?
10. What was Ruth's response to this?

Apply-

It appears to me that Ruth had no personal agenda. She was completely obeying Naomi. This should be our attitude towards God and our authorities, complete & unquestioning obedience. How have you completely and unquestioningly obeyed Him this past week?

Can you think of times that you have not? Write some below.

2. What had Boaz done?
3. Where did he lay?
4. What did she do?
5. Why do you think he slept on his corn?
6. When did he notice her?
7. What awoke him?
8. What did he discover?
*He asks a pretty obvious question next.
9. What would we call vs. 9 in modern-day language?
10. Was Boaz hostile to this idea?
11. What did he commend her in not doing?
NOTE: Apparently she could have gotten one!

Apply-

Ruth was both tender & bold. In the right places, these make anyone a godly person. Boaz also was concerned about responsibility. How is your character?

Name some ways you are responsible? Name some ways you are not?

Name some ways you should work on being more tender or bold.
